

Sexual violence is not tolerated at Western

All members of the Western community have the right to study, learn, work and research in an environment free of sexual violence. Any and all acts of sexual violence will be addressed and individuals who have committed an act of sexual violence will be held accountable.

At Western, a survivor/victim of sexual violence will:

- Have the right to be believed
- Be treated with dignity and respect
- Be informed about on- and off-campus services and resources
- Have the right to decide whether or not to access available services and to choose those services the survivor feels will be most beneficial
- Have the right to decide whether to report to Campus Police and/or local police
- Have access to an on-campus investigation, with the institution's full cooperation
- Have access to a safety plan
- Have access to reasonable and necessary actions to prevent further unwanted contact with the alleged perpetrator(s)
- Be provided alternative living, working or academic arrangements, as appropriate

Sexual violence is any violence, physical or psychological, carried out through sexual means or by targeting sexuality.

Sexual violence includes:

- Sexual abuse
- Sexual assault or rape
- Sexual harassment
- Stalking
- Indecent or sexualized exposure
- Degrading sexual imagery
- Voyeurism
- Cyber harassment
- Trafficking
- Sexual exploitation

If you have experienced sexual violence...
